

Celebrating the Homegoing of

Dorothy Mae Butler

Sunrise

Sunset

May 20, 1955

-

January 18, 2018

I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me and let us exalt his name together. Psalm 34:1-3

Dorothy Mae Butler

Dorothy Mae Hayter, was born on May 20th, 1955 to Mable and Opell Hayter. Dorothy was the last of seven children born to this union. Dorothy was named after her God Mother, Missionary Dorothy Mae Irving whom the Hayter Family lovingly named Mama D.

After the family relocated from Marin City, by way of Texas to San Francisco. The Hayter Family became members of, The Little Chapel COGIC where Bishop L.E. Clever was pastor. Under this leadership, Dorothy grew in grace and became a young adult youth teacher. While serving at Little Chapel, Dorothy held many positions. Some included, leading the YPWW (Young Peoples Willing Workers, ministry) serving in the choir and as a part of Praise and Worship team.

Dorothy attended John Muir Elementary school, which was located next door to her home. Even with the school being next door, Dorothy was late to class every day. She graduated Lincoln High School in 1973 and attended San Francisco City College. Dorothy continued her work in the Church under the mentorship of her God Mother and Sister Bobbie and would become the leader of The Young Women's Christian Console, for the Little Chapel COGIC.

On May 14th, 1983, Dorothy married James M Butler II. To this union was born one son James M Butler III, lovingly called Tre.

On January 18th, 2018 the Lord called Dorothy home.

Proceeding her in death were her four of her six siblings, Bobbie Jean Mallard, Miera Marvie Jenkins, Charlie Ray Hayter and Percy Hayter.

She leaves to celebrate her cherish her memory, her only son James M. Butler III (Tre). Her sister, Lee Williams, brother Herbert Hayter and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews, totaling over thirty. Dorothy will be lovingly misses.

Officiant

Supt Albert Williams

Processional & Invocation

Old Testament

New Testament

Elder Le'mar Rash (Psalms 34 1-3)

Choir

Selections "Beautiful garden of Prayer"

"I shall wear a crown"

Remarks

LaTanya Walker

Remarks

Elder Anthony Brown

Remarks

Andretta 'Precious' Jackson

Remarks

Pamela Bluford-Smith

Stockton Family Representative(s)

Remarks/Selection

Linda Terry

Family History

Elder Robert Collier

(Former Pastor of Little Chapel COGIC)

Sermonic Selection

Ruthie Featherstone

Eulogy

Bishop Johnathon D Logan

Senior Prelate Greater Northern California 2nd Jurisdiction

Glimpse till Glory

Recessional Flounders

Honorary Pallbearers

James M. Butler II

James M. Butler III

Herbert Hayter

George Stampley

Charlie R. Hayter Jr.

Samuel Hayter

Pallbearers

Darrell Simmons

Robert Jenkins

Matthew Simmons

AJ Anderson

Phillip Logan

Jonathan Logan Jr.

Service February 2nd, 2018

St. James Cathedral,
360 Central Ave., Pittsburg, Ca. 94565